POLICE IN TERROR ELKS' HOUSEWARMING.

Too Unwittingly Intimate with Smallpox Suspect.

Negro Eugene Baker Tells Bluecoats as They Gather Close He Had Been as They Gather Close He Had Been Five Days with "Sure 'Nuff" Victims, and They Fall Away in Consternation—Watch for Symptoms.

Officers of general committee—Fred J. Mersheimer, chairman; Harry Ellis, secretary.

Minstel and cutertainment—John C. Maxwell, Charles Merces, Thomas A. Murray, Charles Herman, Carl Gundlach, Maurice Joyce, and James M. sternation-Watch for Symptoms.

the men attached thereto have almost recovered from the effect of the sudden ap-pearance in their midst yesterday morning of Eugene Baker, a negro, who for several days lived in the same house with five smallpox cases.

Fumes of charcoal, formaldehyde, am monia, and sulphur still cling tenaciously hours of fumigating, it was announced at 6 o'clock that the regular Saturday night business would be transacted as Police Watch for Symptoms.

The station house may have recovered from the effects of the sudden entrance of the man infected with the dread disease, but not so the men:

ruddy complexion, usually wearing a broad smile, looked glum and shrunken last night. Every few minutes he would carefully examine his features in a looking-glass, anxiously searching for blotches that might indicate the appearance of fortable by the circuitous routes taken by west their comrades when they are in the

It was cheerful in the Second precinct station yesterday morning when Eugene Baker walked in and asked if he was wanted. Sergt. Flather acted as chairman of the reception committee. His brother police made up the committee,

Police Filled with Consternation. They crowded around the negro and asked what he had done. He could think of nothing that he had done in violation of the law for some time past. Finally, bitation splotches seemed to grow be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

all the men who received the visitor.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Washington, Saturday, April 11, 1908-8 p. m. disturbance that has been moving over the portion of the country during the last few horses of the Silver in the last few horses of the Silver in the Sil as increased steadily in intensity, and is cen-night over extreme Northeast Canada in the of a severe storm, with high west to northwest form of a severe storm, with high west to northwest which over the Lower Lake region, the Middle Atlantic States, and New England. There have been general rains from the West Gulf States northeastward into New England, followed by clearing weather and rapidly falling temperature, the falling temperature extending into the Upper Mississippi Valley and the Upper Lake region. In the West the last four years. and the Upper Lake region. In the West the are in the Northwest, e country, the weather will be generally next two days east of the Rocky Moun-Lake region, and warmer Monday in the South. It will be cooler Monday in the West of the Rocky Mountains the is along the New England coast will be dy, diminishing by Sunday night; on the antic coast diminishing northwesterly, beliable by Monday; on the South Atlantic to brisk northwest to north, becoming by Monday; on the East Gulf coast-light with to northeast; on the West Gulf coast-light cast to east, and on Lake Michigan variating southerly and fresh to brisk.

The display of storm warnings on the Great Lake Pepin will be resumed for the season in 1898.

SPECIAL PORTON ST.

SPECIAL FORECAST. arnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast ware Breakwater to New York, and at Balrnings have been issued for the Red and ansas rivers, and for the White River of Local Temperature.

52; 2 a. m., 52; 4 a. m., 53; 6 a. m., 55; 10 a. m., 69; 12 noon, 68; 2 p. m., 65; 6 p. m., 52; 8 p. m., 54; 10 p. m., 50; 69; minimum, 50.

peratures in Other Cities. ares in other cities, together with the rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8 erday, are as follows:

	Max.	Min.	8 p. m.	fall
N. C	68	58	58	T.
30		66	70	-
lity, N. J	70	46	50	T.
N. Dak	74	24	72	***
[ass	60	44	44	0.0
1. Y	42	34	34	6.0
11	54	40	50	***
, Ohio	56	46	50	***
Wyo		30	64
. Iowa		33	48	***
olo	70	36	64	***
es. Iowa	56	36	54	***
Tex	80	74	74
Jout	74	38	70
Hs, Ind	52	42	48	777
le, Fla	90	72	82	***
ity, Mo	63	42	56	***
k, Ark		60	60	0.0
Mich		28	38
Tenn		56	56	T.
ans, La		70	74	T.
N. Y	62	44	46	T.
atte, Nebr	70	30	61
Nebr		36	58	***
Pa	50	44	1.0.22	***
Me,	58	38	44	***
City, Utah	70		38	***
, Мо		44	70	***
Minn	50	44	52	***
d. Ill	80	32	50	***
Miss		40	50	***
* 	80	68	72	***

you think of it, telephone you d. to The Washington Herald, and be sent you at 1 cent a word.

Pedro Domecq's ontilla Sherry. full body, and of taste, 18 years old.

81 Full Qt. Christian Xander's 909 7th St. 'Phone Main 27s. No branch houses

Hall on April 20-21.

On April 20 and 21 an Easter enter ainment and dance will be given under the auspices of Washington Lodge, No. 15, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at its new home, 919 H street northwest. The proceeds will go to furnish the building.

will have to visit the new home of the Elks, a large attendance is expected each evening. Those in charge of the entertainment are:

The Second precinct station house and the men attached thereto have almost re-to the building and men. After several One of City's Best-known Citizens Passes Away.

FATALLY INJURED BY A FALL

Born in 1845, He Came to the Na-Sergt. C. E. E. Flather, stout and of tion's Capital When a Boy and Engaged in the Feed Business. Faithful Worker in the Methodist Church-Did Many Acts of Charity.

Nixon Brewer, a resident of Washing-Bicycle Policeman McQuade, Desk Ser- ton for many years, and one of the bestgeant Chalmers, and Privates Bennett known men in business and church cirand Brown, who assisted Sergt. Flather cles in the southwest, died yesterday at in receiving the smallpox suspect, also the Emergency Hospital, as the result made frequent trips to the nearest mirror of internal injuries received Tuesday last night. Besides their personal fears, last, when he fell from the hay loft in the men are made more and more uncom- his feed store at 219 Seventh street south-loft at the time of the accident.

ten years ago. At that time he was engaged in work in the loft, which is nearly twenty feet from the ground, and fell, bill, they beat him out of $10. spraining his ankle.

Plans for the Funeral, of the law for some time past. Finally, he reckoned it must be because he had lived in the apartment-house at 441 N street northwest with five persons who he smallpex for several days, cems that when the health officers itined the house Baker escaped. Stold him he would be arrested. Stold him he would be arrested. A sneak thief stole a red leather suit case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday afternoon. The case from th ally decided to give himself up.

Mr. Brewer was prominently connected west, yesterday afternoon, while she was to meanly twenty years. Interment will walking on B street, between Seventh aneously on the negro's face. It Mr. Brewer was born about three miles ly a few minutes before the sta- from Vienna, Va., November 25, 1845. William Salzman, of the National Hotel, ity, and led in the temperance reform the pest-house. This he did, the Brewer carried on business in later years, noon. meantime keeping citizens at a In 1873 he came into full control of the A thief stole a set of harness, valued ceived for her work, Mr. O'Brien consuperintendent of the Georgetown Gas Company, who is living at the age of ninety-one years. When Mr. Brewer came to Washingon he became a member of the Central Methodist Protestant Church, in Ninth street, between E and F streets north-Chinese restaurant. When the old building was sold, Mr. Brewer transferred his membership to Ryland Methodist Episcopal Church. He had been a member of the official board since his affiliation with the church. He conducted a Tuesday night class for seventeen years, and was superintendent of the Sunday school for His Part in Charities.

He took a prominent part in the charities of the church, and in addition visited the sick and poor in the southwest. A large number of those whom he had benefited at various times called at the family home, 214 Eighth street, yesterday, with flowers and other tokens of the high esteem in which the benevolent churchman was held.

Petition President to Stop Violations of Constitution,

Attorney General Bonaparte, acting under instructions from the President, yesand warnings for flood stage in the Ohio terday made public a letter received at the White House from supposed anarchists. It is signed by six citizens of Rutherford, N. J., who demand redress for the alleged wrongs they suffered at the hands of the police in New York, humidity—8 a. m., 93; 2 p. m., 25; 8 p. when their meeting was broken up and ainfall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.), 0.01. Hours a riot ensued as the result of the premature explosion of a bomb, "set off through no fault of their." through no fault of theirs."

The communication states that the Constitution of the United States is being violated in New York City by the local authorities, and that Mr. Roosevelt, as ample and possibly encourages citizens to cultivate contempt for the Constitu-The letter is signed by W. H. Wyatt, William A. Schmidt, Fred Schaefer, R. Dochlert, jr., John T. Lucey, and Rein-

They conclude their communication by petitioning the President to take immediate steps "in bringing the Constitution violator to account, and deal with him as befits his contempt for the Federal

Petition in Bankruptcy. The James Clark Distilling Company, of Baltimore; George W. Cochran & Co., of Washington, and other creditors, yeslerday filed a petition to have George E. Linkins, who conducts a saloon at 1358

H street northeast, declared a bankrupt. They declare that Linkins is insolvent, and committed an act of bankruptcy in February, in giving promissory notes seeured on his saloon fixtures, &c., and that the trustees are now preparing to sell the saloon to Joseph I. Kane, for $4,000. A rule was signed returnable on Friday next, for Mr. Linkins to appear nd show cause why he should not be declared bankrupt.

Funeral Services for John Bryson. Funeral services for John Bryson, at one time naval constructor and assistant chief architect of the navy, were held at 8 o'clock last night from the family home. 714 Twelfth street northeast. The body was sent to Philadelphia for interment Mr. Bryson is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Tagg Bryson; three sons, John, Albert C., and Herbert J. Bryson, and two daughters, Mrs. T. C. Wilson and Revisit Flat to Complete Job of Robbery.

Things Gathered In by Thieves.

Emboldened by the apparent futile et. built by Pavarini & Wyne, contractors, forts of the police to apprehend them, at a cost of $10,000, and is said by many duplicate key workers who, on April 6, entered and robbed the apartment of Mrs. John E. Laughton, in the Susqueanna apartment house, 1430 W street orthwest, returned to the place yesterday to complete the job.

Entering again with false keys, the valuable diamond earrings, a pair of pearl earrings, and an oval-shaped gold breastpin set with several large dia-monds. Other small trinklets were also Circulars describing the property stolen on April 6 were printed yesterday. fore they could be distributed the report of the second robbery was received. The same circular carries a description of jewelry stolen from the Mount Vernon apartment house Friday afternoon, belonging to Mrs. G. G. Gray.

Confidence Men Make Haul. Two confidence men who have been circulating through the city for several days past eluded the police long enough this norning to flim-flam John McLoone, of 638 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, out of $10. Friday night the men approached several people in the downtown section, but failed to work their game successfully.

tall, and weighing about 170 pounds. The Templars. second man is about twenty-five years old, The exercises were held at Medford five feet five inches in height, and Hall, Eighth and I streets northeast.

keeping up a steady flow of conversation and getting Giuliani to change several Sneak thieves entered the new houses, 2407 to 2421 North Capitol street some Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed. The services will be held from Ryland M. E. Church, Tenth and A sneak thief stole a red leather suit and Eighth streets northwest.

Sample Waists Taken.

He came to Washington when a boy, and reported to the police yesterday that work at a time when it was unpopular to do so."

Miss Schroff Fails to Identify Him egro was told to stand on the sidentil the health officers could take his brother in the block where Mr. stolen from his room yesterday after-the negro was taken away, the Cathell, daughter of Capt. J. D. Cathell, son, in the rear of 311 U street northwest, "France" early yesterday morning valuable hens from the hen house in her name on the police books yesterday, we can The actress reported that a Japanese perance due silk veil, five feet long, blew from her head while she was viewing the city from the Washington Monument yesterday afternoon, A gold watch, valued at $75, was stolen from W. E. Knibloe, a guest at the Ox-ford Hotel, while he was in the Belasco Theater yesterday afternoon. It was the work of an expert pickpocket, Loses Mileage Book.

John Mulkenn, of 1408 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, reported to the police vesterday that a mileage book, good for 1,000 miles, had been stolen from the bureau drawer in his room within the past three days.

Two negro women stole a basket conaining a week's washing from a Capital raction street car at Fifteenth streets northwest yesterday afternoon. The basket belonged to Mrs. Mary Orms, of 1030 Seventeenth street northwest.

A bicycle belonging to William Twelfth street entrance of the post-office, just across from the First precinct police his attorney, Thomas C. Taylor, will ask station, yesterday afternoon.

MASONIC TEMPLE TENANTS.

Many Lodges to Have Quarters to the Magnificent New Building.

An enthusiastic meeting of the execu ive committee of the Masonic Temple Association and representatives from the ture. Association and representatives from the several Masonic organizations was held considered. Mr. Meserole believes the last night, at which great interest was | Considered. Mr. Messelve better the last night, at which great interest was | European countries are far ahead of the manifested in regard to the early com- United States in their care for the unem-President, allows infringement upon the Constitution, thereby "setting a bad expletion of the building and the occupancy ployed. of the same.

The following bodies announced their ntention of becoming tenants:

Intention of becoming tenants:

Benjamin B. French Lodge No. 15, The New Jerusalem Lodge No. 9. National Lodge No. 12, Harmony Lodge No. 17, Osiris Lodge No. 18, Acacia Lodge No. 18, St. Join's Lodge No. 11. Columbia Lodge No. 3. Lebanon Lodge No. 14. Hope Lodge No. 29, Lafayette Lodge No. 19, Dawson Lodge No. 29, Lafayette Lodge No. 19, Dawson Lodge No. 20, Lafayette Lodge No. 19, Dawson Lodge No. 28, King Solomon Lodge No. 31, Eureka Chapter No. 4, Lafayette Chapter No. 5, Washington Chapter No. 6, Mount Vernon Chapter No. 1, Columbia Chapter No. 1, Washington Commandery No. 1, Columbia Commandery No. 2, Ester Chapter, Order Eastern Star; Grand Lodge, F. A, A. M.; Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons; Grand Commandery, Knights Templars.

The Largest Morning Circulation. All advertising contracts made by The Washington Herald are based upon its lowney in the bona fide circulation—a circulation in Washington larger by thousands than was ever before attained by any morning newspaper at the Capital. Its books are Merchants' Transfer & Storage Co., 20-922 E STREET, 'PHONE M. 652.

CREMATORY IS TESTED.

Takes Name of Man Whose Body Was First Incenerated Therein. In the presence of four officials of the District government, the new crematory of the District of Columbia was formally opened yesterday morning, and thoroughly tested.

The body of John Fox was the first to be cremated in the institution. The CAME TO GIVE HIMSELF UP As this is the first occasion the public MARIE DORO LOSES A VEIL officials, following custom in cases of this kind, therefore, christened the new building the Fox Crematory.

Superintendent of Construction Webster Confidence Men Make Haul of Ten

Building Inspector Ashford, Gen. Whitaker, smoke inspector of the District, and Dr. W. C. Woodward, health officer of the District, witnessed the test and con-Harness, Jewelry, Hens, and Other sider it satisfactory. It will not be accepted by the government until additional improvements have been made, The building, located in the grounds of the Washington Asylum Hospital, was to be a model institution.

HONOR F. E. WILLARD

men ransacked the flat, taking a pair of Good Templars Unveil Picture of Famous Woman.

MATTHEW E. O'BRIEN SPEAKS

Pays Tribute to Greatest Temperance Refermer and "One of America's Noblest Characters"-Patriotic Songs and Impromptu Speeches End Exercises at Medford Hall.

Addresses laudatory to the memory of Frances E. Willard were made by prominent temperance workers at the exercises attending the unveiling of her picture. last night, held under the The first man is described as about auspices of Frances E. Willard Lodge, hirty-five years old, five feet eleven inches No. 24, Independent Order of Good

Mr. Brewer was directing a number of employes in storing baled hay in the loft at the time of the accident.

He met with a similar accident about 140 pounds. Both are well dressed and are smooth talkers.

About 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening the two men approached Joseph Giuliani, of the congregation of the Centennial Baptist Church were present.

Unveiled by Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Clinton Smith, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, unveiled the picture—a life size bust portrait-which was draped with an American flag.

The principal speaker of the evening was Matthew E. O'Brien, of Connectiher efforts, more than any other perso the scientific teaching of the effects of alcohol upon the human system was made possible in the public schools. "She worked for the benefit of human-

Miss Willard a Templar. Referring to the recognition she has reterday morning.

Tinsley, of 435 Washington The position she obtained as one of the street northwest, yesterday reported to great reformers of the country is justly the police that a thief had stolen four due her, and a credit to the order.

he rear of his home early yesterday United States Capitol is entitled to its Schroff, near her home at Rosslyn, last position as much as any that graces the Thursday evening, is still at large. Report of the loss of a lady's gold Lotunda. Future generations will look watch in a local theater several days ago, upon it and appreciate this noble woman was made to the police yesterday by Col. better than those who lived in the time day on suspicion, was released yester M. Weaver, U. S. A., living at the of her great work.'

Farragut apartments. The watch belonged to Col. Weaver's daughter. He believes it was stolen.

Miss Marie Doro, playing at the National Theater during the past week, had been unstintingly as she did the best efforts.

Miss Schroff confronted the negro yesterday.

Sautter had failed to identify him.

Miss Schroff confronted the negro yesterday was an unselfish life and we who take her as our model should strive to give the past week, had as unstintingly as she did the best efforts.

Committee.

Dr. William C. Rives, at a meeting yesterday to prisoners and the girl picked out a four prisoners and the girl picked out a prevention of the disease. Many we can put forth in the cause of tem-"I am glad to be able to assist in these exercises held for the commemoration of one of America's noblest characters." Impromptu speeches, dealing principally with matters of temperance and advo- a positive identification of Wharton. cating prohibition, were made by Grand hief Templar John Daly, Rev. Wright, pastor of the Centennial Baptist Church; Mrs. Don C. Blaine, Mrs. Clinton Smith, and Mrs. C. M. Westcott.

Interspersed between the addresses pa triotic songs and hymns were sung by the "Trusty" Prevents Prisoner's Escape James Ryan, a "trusty" at the United States Jail, prevented the escape of William Green, a negro, serving a twentytwo-year sentence for larceny, Wednesday night. The negro had filed one of the bars in the cell window, and con-fessed that at night he intended to wrench the har loose, gain his liberty an early hour this morning no arrests wrench the bar loose, gain his liberty. Yates, a letter carrier, living at 822 B and, if anybody interfered, use the bar street northeast, was stolen from the as a weapon.

On the strength of Ryan's discovery the President for a pardon.

Care of the Unemployed,

Among the callers at the White House vesterday was David J. Meserole, a Brooklyn man, who has plans which he thinks would aid the unemployed of the country, or at/least prepare for the fu-ture. The President asked him to sub-

NEWS CUT SHORT.

for Repreby Judge Mulof Lafayette Run ove States mail York avenue afternoon, Jake lexandria, Va., broken. He

Samuel I

Twelfth stree

According

's old, of 912

d, living at Seved backward off streets and was ty Mike stepped ge, was knocked

Two Special Offers for This Week

Couch:

Hardwood frame, veneered in beautifully figured quartered-sawed oak. Legs and moldings are of birch, with oak finish. Hard edge, 15 hand tied springs in the body, 4 in the head, 19 in all. Heavy duck canvas over the springs, fine tow with cotton top filling. Size, O ? 27x72 inches. A thoroughly made, highclass piece of furniture for . . . . .

This Oak Dresser, very well finished and constructed, is a most dependable article. It has four drawers, a French beveled plate mirror, and is a roomy, attractive furnishing for any bedroom. We offer it at the special price of . . . . .

Courteous treatment and fair dealing is our constant aim. We are pleased to extend credit to those who desire it.

> When in Doubt, Buy of

House & Herrmann

7th and Eye Streets N. W.

"Look for the Gilded Dome."

SUSPECTED NEGRO RELEASED

as Her Assailant.

Man Who Saw Black Man Throw Away Revolver Declares It Was Not Wharton,

The negro who attacked Miss Amelia James Wharton, the negro arrested Friday evening after Miss Schroff and John onths as the one most like her assail-Darlington Mackey, son of State Attorney Mackey, who so heroically de-fended the girl against the negro, made the negro who attacked Miss Schroff throw away his revolver while crossing throw away his revolver while crossing the sick room be disinfected, that the the road leading to the bridge, asserted disease may not spread. that he was ready to swear that Wharton was not the negro he saw, that the prisoner was released. The record of the gun dropped by the ing number was accounted for. After the release of Wharton, a posse Roosevelt expressed pleasure at meeting under the leadership of a brother of the the man who played such an important had been made. Will Entertain Council.

C. Bowen, newly installed orator of the against the Capital Traction Company. tertainment of the members of District that in June last Schellhorn was thrown Council, No. 1595, Royal Arcanum, Tues-day evening, in the council chamber, 516 at Fourteenth street and Thomas Circle, Rough Riders' Monument Society. There will be a joint committee meet- month. ng of the Rough Riders' Monument Society at the Raleigh Hotel Monday evening. at 8 o'clock, to arrange for a lecture, to be given for the benefit of that fund, of the District Assembly, to be held on by the Hon. Robert L. Taylor, United States Senator, on April 27.

Rifles' Armory.

TAYLOR FUNERAL TUESDAY. War Veteran and Former Editor to

Be Burled in Arlington. Funeral services for Thomas S. Tayor, a veteran of the civil war, and a clerk in the Post-office Department, who died yesterday at George Washington University Hospital, will be held Tuesday Chapel, 1734 Pennsylvania avenue. Burial will be in Arlington Cemetery. Before coming to Washington, Mr. Tayor published a newspaper at South Bend. He founded the Fort Wayne (Ind.) ournal, and was editor and publisher of the Fort Wayne Standard.

afternoon at 2 o'clock from Gawler's nember of Rawlins Post, G. A. R. DISCUSSES CONSUMPTION.

Rives Gives Lecture Before

negro who had been in jail for seven and prevention of the disease. Many were present at the lecture. Dr. Rives said the causes of consumption are many, and that great care should be taken to prevent the spread of the not allow his sputum to fall on the floor, War-time Engineer Visits President. W. H. Gertz, who brought the first negro was looked up on the books at trainload of troops to Washington from police headquarters, where all purchases Annapolis, in April, 1861, was introduced of weapons are entered: Although the to President Roosevelt yesterday by Reprecords were gone through as far back resentative Roberts, of Massachusetts, as August, 1903, no gun of a correspond- The veteran told the Chief Executive of the experiences on the trip.

A suit for $10,000 damages was filed An evening of characterizations by P. yesterday by John A. Schellhorn, jr., council, has been arranged for the en- In the declaration filed it is alleged by being struck by a car and seriously injured, and by reason of which he lost his position, which paid him $75 a

> Invitations Are Issued, Invitations are out for the second dance

Jewelry Auction Sale

UR entire stock of Diamonds, Watches, Highclass Jewelry, Novelties, &c., is being sold at auction, in order to take up the manufacturing of Optical Goods.

Everything must go. Fixtures, Safes, and Lease for sale.

DAILY SALES: 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., 7:30 p. m.

ISADORE KAHN, 1339 F Street N. W.

The Best Shoe Repairing

To be had in Washington at competition-killing prices. WHOLE SOLE AND HEEL: Men's Shoes, $1.50; Ladies', $1.25 HALF SOLE AND HEEL:

Men's Shoes, $1.00; Ladies', Soc. Messineo Shoe Mfg. and Repair Co.,

514 10th St. N. W., 'Phone Main 1646.

. &

DIED. BREWER-On Saturday, April 11, 1908, at 11:20 a. m., NIXON, beloved husband of Sarah E. m. NIXON, beloved husband of Sarah E. Brewer.
Funeral Monday, April 13, at 2 p. m., at Ryland
M. E. Church, Tenth and D streets southwest.

OIT-On Saturday, April 11, 1908, at 6 a. m., JAMES C. COIT, at his residence, 1121 Monroe street northwest. Interment at Cheraw, S. C. DEITZ—On Friday, April 10, 1908, at 9:50 p. m., at the residence of her sister, Mrs. James B. Wright, 406 Elm street northwest, Le Droit Park, SUSAN C., daughter of the late William A. and Eliza H. Deitz, of Albany, N. Y. Funeral services at St, Luke's P. E. Church, Fifteenth and Church streets northwest, Sunday, April 12, at 2 p. m. (Albany, N. Y., and St, Louis, Mo., papers please copy.)

GILES—Departed this life Friday, April 10, 1908, at 6:35 o'clock, Mrs. MAGGIE GILES, in the thirty-first year of her age. Funeral Sunday at 1 p. m. from Zion Baptis: Church, F street, between Third and Four-and-a half streets southwest, Rev. J. W. Howard GULICK-On Friday, April 10, 1908, at 4 a. m MARY-ELIZABETH, only daughter of George I

Notice of funeral later. HILL-On Saturday, April 11, 1908, ZILPHA RA MOND, wife of R. F. Hill, at the Savoy, Waington, D. C., of pulmonary tuberculosis.

Funeral services Monday, April 13, at 10 a.

Interment at Congressional Cemetery.

HILTON-Departed this life Saturday, April 1908, at 10:45 a. m., at her residence, 1418 street northwest, Miss ANNA SUDDATH H Notice of funeral later. HOAGLAND—On Friday, April 10, 1908, at 9:1 m., JANE, widow of P. Hoagland. Funeral from chapel at Congressional Cemeter Sunday, April 12, at 2 p. m. Relatives and fr

HOOE-On Friday, April 10, 1908, at George V ington University Hospital, ROBERT ART HOOE, born in Fauquier County, Va., Sejber 22, 1815. Funeral services at the Epiphany Church Mo April 13, at 9:30 a. m. Interment at Frede burg, Va. (Fredericksburg, Va., papers

KLINE-On Friday, April 10, 1908, at 1002 Je avenue northwest, MARGARET KLINE. Funeral Monday, April 13, at 3 o'clock, fro

McGRAIN—Interment of the remains of WII BACON McGRAIN, who died Friday. Ma 1998, temporarily placed in the cemetery will take place at Bock Creek Cemetery! afternoop, April 13, at 4 o'clock. MULLEN-On Saturday, April 11, 1908, at m., BERNARD MULLEN.

Notice of funeral hereafter. (Philadelphia PERRY-Entered into rest Thursday, April at 10:30 a, m., at the residence of her son, W. Perry, 516 Presstman street, Baltimor MARY ANN EVANS, widow of Charles devoted mother of Walter L., Ella E., and the late Charles H. and James A. Pe Funeral from the residence of her daughte Mrs. Alexander Hicks. 1843 Fifth streewest, Monday. April 13. at 3 p. m. and friends invited to attend.

and friends invited to attend.

PRICE—On Wednesday, April 8, 1998, at m., at her residence, 814 O street n MATILDA PRICE, beloved mother Yates, Elizabeth McCarthy, Ida, James Isaac, and Joseph Price.

Funeral Sunday, April 12, at 1:39 p. m., i braith A. M. E. Z. Churca, Sixth street L and M northwest. Relatives and fi vited.

day, April 12, 1968, at 2 p. m. Rev. C. wich, P. C. Friends and relatives invi FUNERAL DIRECTORS

GEORGE P. ZURHORS

avi Best Capitol 8

SMITH-The funeral of Mrs. FRANCES will be held from Lane C. M. E. Chi

FUNERAL D

FUNERAL